IT'S LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION! AS BEESTON FESTIVAL GOES TO THE MOVIES

Beeston Festival is extending into the evening for 2022 with a festival of short films from 6:30pm.

The selection of independent short films has been hand picked to represent real-life and honest themes in our community including immigration, multiculturalism and social pressures such as mental health.

The outdoor event will take place near the main stage, once the children's and young people's activities have been dismantled. 'Doors' open at 6:30pm with the first film being shown at 7pm. The films are due to finish at 8:30pm.

The Film Festival is free, but ticketed. You can register for tickets online at bit.ly/BeestonFilm, at the Information tent throughout the day, or get your ticket on the gate, subject to availability. Bring your own chair or blanket. Refreshments and ice creams will be available to buy.

Amongst the films to be screened are:

BARRY THE BEEKEEPER

Barry, a Jamaican-born beekeeper who has been the heart of his local community for over 20 years. Barry takes inspiration from his bees and is still reminded that hope and togetherness can be found in all situations.

YOUNG PHOENIX

Three young adults create a bond whilst striving to promote mental well-being among their peers, sharing their experiences of anxiety, depression and addiction.

DISPLACED

Visually captivating with striking imagery and virtuoso dance, Akeim Toussaint Buck's film takes the viewer on a journey calling for reflection and global change.

SHEAR

Yasmin, an impressionable South Asian teen, finds herself trapped between her strict, traditional family and the man she is in love with.

THE DEALER

Dealing tiny pieces of happiness in the form of written affirmations. Anton gives them to other lonely souls, people suffering mentally, and anyone in need of a kind word from a stranger.

As well as the evening Film Festival, there's a movie theme all day with a Children's Fancy Dress Competition taking place in the Children's tent at 3:30pm.

And don't miss the Silent Movie Crew and stilt-walking Fairy Godmother who will be mingling with festival-goers across the site, bringing a smile to your face.

Don't miss the Silent Movie Crew who will be out and about all day
